

ENTRY LEVEL / OFFSHORE FIELD ENGINEER

ROLE:

To be part of an on/offshore team to complete specific client worksopes from equipment mobilisation to issue of inspection reports. When the business requires it, will be required to go offshore and travel overseas. To explore and improve AISUS Offshore technology and services.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Assist with planning the job from initial order to delivery of the end product. This also includes going offshore to complete the workscope.

Assist with ensuring workscope and site-based activities are completed with safety and welfare of all personnel as top priority.

Ensure that the client is satisfied with the offshore delivery.

Assist with maintaining and registering inspection and lifting equipment to fall within offshore regulations and standards.

To attend client meetings and pre/post job briefs.

To complete specific training or inductions required to mobilise offshore.

Adhere to the QHSE system.

Maintaining good housekeeping and leaving work areas clean and tidy at all times.

Assist with maintaining all operational equipment (including third party hire) and that it is kept in a fit for purpose condition and ensure maximum possible availability.

Assist in technology demonstrations / presentations.

Maintain a training and competency log and continually strengthen personal development.

Responsible for participating in the development of a positive culture and working environment that motivates fellow staff to produce the highest possible standard of quality and professionalism throughout the business.

Promote and behave in accordance with the AISUS Core Values: Integrity; Innovation; Customer Centricity; Collaboration; and Excellence.

QUALIFICATIONS / EXPERIENCE:

- Valid Passport

COMPETENCE AND SKILLS:

- IT Literate in Microsoft Packages
- Effective Time Management
- Good communication and interpersonal skills.

INSPECTION SPECIALISTS
Minimising Risk, Maximising Value

To apply now email – INFO@AISUS.CO.UK